TradeWinds2024: Connecting Businesses for Global Growth

May 21, 2024 – Reno, NV – Online Master's Colleges (OMC), an industry-leading platform dedicated to providing information on the best online master's programs in the United States, is excited to announce its active participation in TradeWinds2024. Hosted by the International Trade Council, this premier global business event will take place from October 15-17, 2024, in New York City. TradeWinds2024 is set to bring together industry leaders, innovators, and policymakers from around the world to foster international business connections and promote global growth.

A Legacy of Fostering Global Business Connections

Since its inception in 2008, TradeWinds has been instrumental in supporting countless companies in achieving growth and exposure across a variety of global markets. The event offers a robust platform for businesses to explore international opportunities, network with key industry players, and gain insights into the latest market trends. The diverse range of activities includes keynote speeches, panel discussions, workshops, and networking sessions, all designed to empower businesses to expand their global reach.

Impactful Participation: A Success Story

Sai Yallapragada, Founder and CEO of Smart Dust Systems, parent company of OMC, highlighted the significant impact of participating in the TradeWinds program. Reflecting on his experience at TradeWinds2022, he stated, "We have closed deals with two international businesses that we met, resulting in initial six-figure revenue with projected increased revenue growth this year. With participation in the TradeWinds program, we were able to close this deal." This testament underscores the effectiveness of TradeWinds in facilitating meaningful business connections and driving substantial growth. See the post here for more
